

Issue 3 | Date: February 15, 2022

Editor : Harini Thiagarajan

HUMANITIES WA UPDATE

Deepti Agrawal, our founder has recently been appointed as a Humanities Washington board member.

Being an official Humanities WA tradition bearer since 2018, Mrs. Agrawal has been involved with promoting the art style of Madhubani Painting on numerous occasions with the organization— most recent was her Instagram art takeover

<https://tinyurl.com/3kurc9ch>

We congratulate her for her new role and for continuing to officially represent the traditional Indian culture state-wide and beyond.

UPCOMING FREE EVENTS

- 1. Everett Public Library (3/17 @6 PM) - Mark your dates for a workshop on one of India's famous holidays—Holi! Create a colorful Indian princess with simple supplies. Link to registration - <https://www.crowdcast.io/e/deepti2/register>.
- 2. Camas Public Library (3/19 @10:30 AM-12:00 PM) - Join this event to indulge more into the tradition and rich heritage of Madhubani art. To register for the event, please visit <https://www.cityofcamas.us/library/page/news-events>.
- 3. Seattle Art Museum (3/25 | 11-5pm) - Join the celebration of the Embodied Change: South Asian Art Across Time event at the Seattle Asian Art Museum. Enjoy multiple performances, art talks, and a take-away Madhubani Painting activity designed by artist Deepti Agrawal. Part of the exhibition, are some vintage Madhubani Paintings by the Padma Award winners.

ICFF - OPPORTUNITY

The International Children's Friendship Festival is back for an in-person event. We've been a popular participant of the event for the last 5 years where we proudly represent our country, India. The format is that of an exhibition and activity booth. Kindly submit your names by Feb 28, 2022 to participate this year. All kids 15 and under are eligible.

Event details: April 23th, 2022 | 11:00AM – 6:00PM
Fisher Pavilion, Seattle Center

In Addition, to submit an art work on the theme "HEALTHY EARTH & HAPPY KIDS", visit <https://tinyurl.com/yckhueb9>

