

Issue 6 | Date: June 14, 2022

Editor : Harini Thiagarajan

CANYON CREEK RANGOLI PROJECT

Rangoli, a prominent cultural symbol in Indian tradition is now a permanent fixture in Canyon Creek Elementary School, Bothell. The 9ftx9ft rangoli project was successfully lead by our founder Deepti Agrwal and teaching artist Nikita Thakalath.

SHILPA SHASTRA IN-PERSON SESSIONS

We are excited to host the renowned artist, Drdha Vrata Gorrick in Seattle for our first 2-day in-person Shilpa Shastra workshop. The spots are limited. There is an early sign up opportunity for our school students. For details, please email the project lead Nikita Thakalath. (nsobby@gmail.com).
Dates: July 13-14th ,10 AM - 1 PM
Venue: Redmond Community Center

CHILDREN'S FESTIVAL

We were back at International Children's Friendship Festival for its 13th annual event in Seattle Center Armory.

Our artists, Anvika Bheemarasetty, Anvitha Babu, Anugraha Ganesh, Jahnvi Shukla, Ishika Vemula, Manavi Shukla, Oviya Raja did stage presentations, held a show, a coloring activity and engaged with guests from all ages exploring different cultures.

WATS EVENT

Artists Anvitha Babu, Inchara Chetan and Khushi Garg held an exhibition of their artworks at WA Telugu Samithi in Everett Civic Auditorium on April 9th. Their paintings received unprecedented appreciation.

SEATTLE TIMES FEATURE

Heritage Arts Apprentice pair Harini Thiagarajan and Ms. Agrawal featured in The Mix section of Seattle Times on June 1st. Read full story here - <https://tinyurl.com/4hmtstdz>

TEACHING OPPORTUNITY

Inviting little artists to run a community program for the seniors, this July. Come, let's put together an event for grandparents or seniors who are here for the summer. An art workshop that will awaken the artists in them and take them back to their younger days by giving a sense of accomplishment. Contact project heads Vidhya - 425-286-0942 or Deepthi - 417-396-3338 (Text or Whatsapp only) for more info or to volunteer as teaching artists.