

Issue 8 | Date: August 15, 2022

Editor : Harini Thiagarajan

REDMOND CHILDREN'S BUSINESS FAIR

Yet another year of a remarkable entrepreneurial experience for the kids. This time round, we went bigger and brighter with 2 booths at the fair! Artists worked tirelessly for weeks to create unique pieces of trinkets to sell. They planned and executed meticulously and made the show, a grand success. We were graced by the Mayor of Redmond, Angela Birney who encouraged the budding talents. Thanks to Ms. Agrawal for the guidance and support all along the way. The participants were Dhruvika Gogoi, Dyuti Joshi, Oviya Raja, Adithi Siva, Aradhna Praveen, and Dhiya Souresh.

SENIOR'S ART WORKSHOP

Wind Beneath the Wings organized its debut non-profit event at the Bothell Library on July 20th. The board members, Deepthi Ganesh and Vidhya Durai planned and executed the event successfully with artist volunteers who helped senior citizens create vibrant wooden Madhubani coasters and bookmarks. The artist volunteers also got a chance to present their own artworks, spreading the awareness about the rich traditional Indian culture to those who may have not heard of it.

Participating artists :
Anvika, Oviya, Aadhya, Sanjitha, Anugraha, Satvik, Aditi

GRAPHIC DESIGN OPPORTUNITY

We are looking out for someone with graphic design experience who would be able to develop the logo for Wind Beneath the Wings. The hours would count towards PVSA certification. Please reach out to Ms. Agrawal via text.

Learn more about Wind Beneath the Wings (our non-profit wing) at www.deeptidesigns.com/wbw

GOOD ACT CHILDREN'S FAIR

We were pleased to support and sponsor the efforts of five North Creek High School sophomores, Amogh, Rakesh, Muralidhar, Suhanraj, and Rohil, who conducted a Children's Fair at Park Ridge Church. Over 50 diverse booths were set up by aspiring young entrepreneurs, many of who were trying it out for the first time. The event was a huge success with heavy footfall, and the participants enjoyed the real-life opportunity. They were encouraged to continue cultivating their leadership and entrepreneurship skills.

PARKADILLY FAIR

Our talented artists got an incredible chance to run the art camp at the largest children's fair on the east side—Parkadilly. We were invited to host the Madhubani art activity in the "Parkadilly Art Tent" and helped over 100 participants create their own traditional Madhubani bookmarks. The fair witnessed over 45 kid-focused booths, ranging from games, face paint, food. Funds from the event went towards further improvements to the Lake Sammamish State Park. Congrats to the artists for their successful execution:

Anugraha Ganesh, Snigdha Joysula, Nikita Joshi, Hansika, Satvik Kabbur, Sanika Kabbur, Rithikka Souresh, Sumita Rao, and Shreaya Vinod.

VIRTUAL PATTACHITRA WORKSHOP

We are excited to announce the Virtual Pattachitra Workshop with internationally renowned Odisha based artist, Mr. Ashish Das. He has many accolades to his credit, prominent one of which is the presence of his painting at the Rashtrapati Bhawan (India's President's house.) Owing to the support by Humanities WA and NEH, the three day workshop is being offered almost free to the participants. Please register here: www.deeptidesigns.com/nardhanavinayaka.

Details: Sept 3rd, 4th, 10th from 10 AM-12:30 PM PST, $10 per person

